ACADEMIC PROJECTS

- ❖ Wanderlust
 - Developed a web application following the MVC (Model-View-Controller) architecture, with Node.js and Express.js for the backend logic (Model and Controller), and EJS templates for dynamic rendering of views.
 - Implemented CRUD operations for managing listings, including creating, reading, updating, and deleting listings.
 - Integrated front-end using EJS templates for dynamic rendering of listing data.
 - Incorporated user authentication and authorization using Passport.js for secure access to listing management features.
 - Managed project dependencies using npm and utilized Git for version control and collaboration.
- ❖ Food Delivery Website
 - In this project, I have created a fully responsive website from scratch with the help of HTML and CSS. The website I have created is somewhat similar to food delivery services.
